

Mindi Aguirre

“Mindi’s mission is clear: to fight for your justice and help rebuild your life.”

Mindi specializes in personal injury matters arising from motor vehicle collisions, wrongful death, and medical malpractice. In and out of the courtroom, Mindi fights for injured individuals and families across Virginia who need a fearless advocate in their corner.

A graduate of Roanoke College, Mindi refined her legal skills at Liberty University School of Law. She sharpened her skills by earning an Executive Certificate in Leadership from the Batten Leadership Institute, further strengthening her ability to advocate effectively and lead with purpose. Her continuous pursuit of knowledge and growth allows her to stay ahead of legal trends and deliver exceptional results for her clients.

With a compassionate yet tenacious approach, Mindi empowers her clients to focus on healing while she handles the legal complexities. Her work is about more than just winning cases; it’s about helping people reclaim peace and rebuild their lives. Your story becomes Mindi’s mission, and she refuses to let insurance companies or large entities take advantage of you.

Let Mindi's expertise and unwavering commitment guide you toward the justice you deserve. Contact her today at (540) 345-2000.
